Chapter 10—Congregational Meeting

C10.01. This congregation shall have at least one regular meeting per year. The regular meetings(s) of the congregation shall be held at the time(s) specified in the bylaws. Consistent with the laws of the State of Wisconsin, the bylaws shall designate one regular meeting per year as the annual meeting of this congregation.

The annual meeting of this congregation shall be held normally on the first or second Sunday in February.

The triannual meetings of this congregation shall be held in February, June and October.

C10.02. A special Congregational Meeting may be called by the pastor, the Congregational Council, or the president of this congregation, and shall be called by the president of this congregation upon the written requests of 10 percent of the voting members. The president of the Congregational Council shall call a special meeting upon request of the synod bishop. The call for each special meeting shall specify the purpose for which it is to be held, and no other business shall be transacted.

Language Proposed by Council—Reduce to two meetings a year
